THE MAFIA BOSS

Multi-time Lite Shod and Open Shod World Grand Champion, The Mafia Boss, was bred by Nancy Anderton and purchased as a two year old by Kendall and Amy Mays. Boss started as a Lite Shod contender by Daniel Foreman of Southwind Stables located in Pontotoc, Mississippi for two years. He then relocated to Gannon Stables after a year of breeding mares. Boss then went back to breeding and mastering the trails. After his spring breeding time, Boss went straight back to work on a steel open shod shoe. He campaigned under the Gannon Stables banner and had a great show season, winning multiple blues at NSSHA. He then earned top honors at the SSHBEA Championship in both the Amateur Open Shod with Amy Mays and the Stake Canter Class with Michael Johnson. Also at the SSHBEA Championship show, Boss' first filly offspring under saddle, Boss's Covergirl, earned World Grand Championship honors in the Open Shod 2 & 3 Year Old division. Boss is also proud of his first World Champion Model Weanling Stallion, I'm A Shady Boss.

PUT SOME SPOTTED MAFIA IN YOUR SHOW STRING OR ON THE TRAIL!

To date, Boss is proven to produce foals that not only are talented, but also smart minded, willing, and full of heart. Boss is currently standing at Double S Farm in Tullahoma, Tennessee, owned and most loved by Kendall and Amy Mays.
