First woman to win NSSHA Grand Championship

COVERAGE BY LINDA SCRIVNER, KASIE SANDERSON AND KAITLYN RIPPY
EDITORIAL BY KASIE SANDERSON AND KAITLYN RIPPY

MURFREESBORO, Tenn. — The 44th Annual National Spotted Saddle Horse Association (NSSHA) World Grand Championship was held at the Middle Tennessee State University Livestock Center September 14-16, 2023. The three-day event held classes that were full of fierce competition that included exhibitors from several different states that came to compete in the 89 classes that were offered. Three judges held the pencil for the event including Jonathan Cantrell, Jennifer Sexton Lambert and Shelli Mehaffey.

The final class of the show was the Spotted Open Shod Four & Over World Grand Championship. It was the team of Caper's Shakes & Shadows and Leighanne Tibbs who walked away with the top honors this year, making Tibbs the first woman to win the NSSHA World Grand Championship. This talented entry, who is prepared by Ryan Gannon Stables, also took top honors in the Spotted Open Shod Four & Over Championship. There were several other highlights of the show, one being the numerous wins that Nelms Training Center took back to College Grove. Gannon Stables and Philip Gilliam Stables also had several victories, and Tibbs Highway Horse Farm once again had many accolades to celebrate. Dr. Carol Lamberson had a fantastic show taking home her first set of NSSHA roses.

Complete results will follow this story and may also be viewed at www.walkinghorsereport.com.

Jose's Top Gun, with trainer Crystal Deputy and owner Deb Sims, claimed two world championships in the Two & Three-Year-Old Country and Trail Pleasure divisions, along with two world grand championships.

The team of A Sterling Honors and Michael Jonson took home the Open Shod Three-Year-Old World Grand Championship for owner Bo Robbins (not pictured).

THE MAFIA BOSS

Multi-time Lite Shod and Open Shod World Grand Champion, The Mafia Boss, was bred by Nancy Anderton and purchased as a two year old by Kendall and Amy Mays. Boss started as a Lite Shod contender by Daniel Foreman of Southwind Stables located in Pontotoc, Mississippi for two years. He then relocated to Gannon Stables after a year of breeding mares. Boss then went back to breeding and mastering the trails. After his spring breeding time, Boss went straight back to work on a steel open shod shoe. He campaigned under the Gannon Stables banner and had a great show season, winning multiple blues at NSSHA. He then earned top honors at the SSHBEA Championship in both the Amateur Open Shod with Amy Mays and the Stake Canter Class with Michael Johnson. Also at the SSHBEA Championship show, Boss' first filly offspring under saddle, Boss's Covergirl, earned World Grand Championship honors in the Open Shod 2 & 3 Year Old division. Boss is also proud of his first World Champion Model Weanling Stallion, I'm A Shady Boss.

To date, Boss is proven to produce foals that not only are talented, but also smart minded, willing, and full of heart. Boss is currently standing at Double S Farm in Tullahoma, Tennessee, owned and most loved by Kendall and Amy Mays.

"Since the very beginning of the Spotted Horse breed, our emphasis is to raise a natural gaited Spotted Saddle Horse wearing keg shoes. Also, one that is high headed, smooth, athletic, impressive and intelligent that can be used for coon hunting, team penning, or enjoy nature trails with comfort and pleasure."
